

Please do not allow more nudity, violence or any such offensive action on television. There is too much of it on television now as it is, and I would like the laws to make it more difficult to show such offensive images.